

Facts about love

Love. love is like a never ending circle to which not everyone would see. Love is like a mysterious feeling that at first it's not felt or heard. Love is a powerful message that brings all people of race, size, and sexuality of all kinds together. never let it flow out of your heart and soul, always keep it when someone gives it to you. above all, when you love someone or something, never lose. you shall always keep it safe close to your heart.