LAUREN CAMPOSANO

BACHELOR OF SCIENCES | ANTHROPOLOGY

SKILLS

---

I am a creative, critical thinker committed to refining the details of every project.

Communication, technology, and creativity are some of my strongest skills.

EXTRACURRICULAR

- Member of International Medical Outreach, a student-led, non-profit organization that travels to impoverished areas around the world to provide health clinics and educational workshops.

- Member of Lambda Alpha, the national anthropology honors society. Open only to anthropology majors with a GPA of 3.25 or above.

EXPERIENCE

CONTENT CREATION & MANAGEMENT • PERSONAL INSTAGRAM BLOG • 2017- PRESENT

I create food content for my own Instagram blog. I make the food, photograph the product, edit photos, and share them to social media with a thorough and thoughtful caption, that is full of personality! I also curate my Instagram stories with the goal of connecting with my audience. I have created content for dozens of local and national brands, including Norman Love Confections, Publix Supermarket, and Applebee's.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT • HIGH VELOCITY • 2017-2019

Key responsibilities included: organization, scheduling, and document processing. Produced contracts, Notice of Commencements, and various other forms requiring meticulous attention to detail. I developed a new filing and organizational method for the office, saving employees valuable time during their day-to-day routine.
