

10 Interesting Things You Didn't Know About Cruises

Whether you are a first-timer or a seasoned pro, you are sure to be amazed with some of these lesser known facts about cruises.

Cruising is an idea that offers the perfect combination of comfort and leisure, and people all around the globe are being more and more interested in trips like this. There is also a mystical nature of a cruise ship that seduces many new comers to have their first ever cruise, as well as seasoned pros to keep coming back for more.

Some people call a cruise ship a floating resort, while some others call it a floating city, albeit an intimate one. And just like a city, a cruise ship also has some mysterious aisles, some hidden tools and mechanisms to keep the floating city in order. So, let's find out some lesser-known interesting facts about cruises from below.

On-board Water Plants

Have you ever imagined to drink the same water that you are sailing on? Every proper cruise ship has a water filtration plant on ship to provide the safest drinking water to its passengers.

Waste Disposal System

Another important thing that makes it function like a city is a cruise ships' waste disposable system on board. It's also something essential to keep the water from pollution and save the guests from smelling dirt.

Everyone's a Foodie on Cruises

In general, a 7-day cruise use over 45,000 eggs, 1800 pounds of coffee, and 20,000 ice cream cones; making it a food extravaganza. It results in gaining a pound a day for the average passengers.

Seawater is Used in the Pools

While it seems pretty obvious, but the information that the cruise pools are usually filled with the seawaters often tends to surprise a lot of people.

Cabins are Made of Metal

Although they might seem wooden at first, the walls of the cabins are mainly made of metal. It is designed in this way for nothing but safety.

Cruise Ship Jail

A cruise is just like a small town and of course to keep the bad guys away from the society, cruise ships have their own jails.

No Place for Unlucky 13

Some cruises still have a superstition about the certain number 13 and so don't be surprised if you can't find deck 13 in between 12 and 14.

Cruises have Godmothers

Ships have their own tradition. One of which is to organize a naming ceremony and get them christened with a Godmother!

Friends of Bill W. and Dorothy

If you ever wondered who are these friends of Bill W. and Dorothy on almost every cruise ship, you would be surprised to know that it is the pseudo names for alcoholics and LGBTQ on-board, respectively.

The Naughty Room isn't that Naughty

There is a naughty room on almost all the cruise ships. Don't get so excited you pervs, as it only refers to the storage of the confiscated materials such as alcohol, steam, or iron, etc.