

Sarah Dinaburg

Summary

Highly motivated, creative, a self-starter, experienced in working with children and adults. Experienced in adobe creative software, particularly photoshop, illustrator and indesign.

Employment

Lyft - 2019-current
Self employed driver

Instacart - 2017-2019
Self employed personal shopper

Temple Beth Shalom - 2016-2017
Substitute and assistant teacher in classes ranging from Pre-K to 1st grade. Directed and executed larger scale art projects.

Farmers' Market - West Roxbury - Summer 2015
The sole manager for booth promoting subscriptions for packaged ingredients for meals. Interacted with the public, managed sales

Amir's Natural Foods - Summer 2014
Cooked, prepared wide variety of food and handled delivery for small catering company.

Temple Hillel B'nai Torah - Hebrew School, Teacher's Assistant - 2009-2013
Assistant teacher in classes ranging from 1st to 5th grade. Did one-on-one tutoring and small group instruction in Hebrew and Jewish culture.

Park School Summer Camp - Summer 2013
Camp counselor in training and art specialist working with children ages 8–14.

Camp/Training and Volunteer Experience

Temple Hillel B'nai Torah

Assistant to Office Manager - 2014-2015

Assisted with filing, event planning, mailing, and calendar development

Temple Community Retreat - 2014

Coordinated a collaborative art project with adults and children, a tile mosaic that now hangs in the temple

The Putney School Summer Arts Program, Putney, Vermont - 2011-2012

Attended two sessions with intensive focus on developing my portfolio in drawing, ceramics & stained glass

Education

Graduate, Beaver Country Day School, Chestnut Hill, MA 2013

Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore, MD 2013-2015

Graduate, Lesley University, Cambridge, MA 2016-2020

BFA Illustration May 2020

References available upon request